

From East to West, from Shore to Shore

Caelius Sedulius (5th Century)
Translated by John Ellerton (1826-1895)

From east to west, from shore to shore, Let every heart awake and sing,
He shrank not from the ox-en's stall, He lay with-in the man-ger bed,
And while the an-gels in the sky, Sang praise a-bove the si-lent field,
All glor-y for this bles-sed morn, To God the Fa-ther ev-er be;

The ho-ly Child whom Mar-y bore, The Christ, the ev-ver-last-ting King.
And He whose boun-ty feed-eth all, At Mer-y's breast Him-self was fed.
To shep-herds poor the Lord most High, The one great Shep-herd, was re-vealed.
All praise to Thee, O vir-gin born, All praise, O Ho-ly Ghost, to Thee.
